

To whom it may concern,

I understand that my friend Joshua Levine has applied to rent an apartment in your building. He is clean, conscientious and quiet. How do I know? We have been roommates no fewer than three times in as many decades - twice in Brooklyn, NY and once in Pittsburgh, PA. They were some of the best years of my life and to this day I look back on them fondly.

Of course, since then we have both grown older, wiser and watched our families grow. Through it all Josh has remained a steadfast and reliable friend. If our life situations ever changed such that we would have the opportunity to cohabitate again, I would not hesitate to do so.

In my opinion, any building would be lucky to have Josh as a tenant.
